Is Your Musical Ear Keener than Zenatello's?

KNIGHTED by the King, officially-acclaimed in the musical centers of the Old World and The New—one of the great tenors of all times—Zenatello has delighted thousands with his "voice of golden tone, prodigal in its expenditure, yet responsive to every emotional shade." Zenatello is the leading tenor of the Boston National Grand Opera Company.

In the above picture, this great artist is singing in direct comparison with

The NEW EDISON

Re-Creation of his voice. Over three hundred musical critics say that the New Edison Re-Creation of the voice is indistinguishable from the original.

Is your musical ear keener, truer than Zenatello's? Make the test. Hear the New Edison Re-Creation of Zenatello, Anna Case, Thomas Chalmers, Albert Spalding and other great artists.

We will gladly arrange a concert for you and your friends, so that you may hear these Re-Creations.

Returned Veteran Killed At Mine

The first fatality in connection with the West Canadian Collieries operations at Green Hill mines occurred on Monday morning, in which William Archer, a veteran of the South African and present European wars was the victim.

Mr. Archer went to work on Monday morning as usual, and was engaged oiling cable rollers near the head of the incline, when he was struck by an ascending trip of empty coal cars. No one seems to have witnessed the accident, and it was a few minutes before help arrived. Although severely gashed up around the head and body, he retained consciousness until after being conveyed to the washhouse, where the spirit fled. Dr. McDonald was hurried to the scene, but nothing could be done. On examination it was found that one foot was almost completely severed, a number of ribs were broken and several deep gashes were inflicted on the head. He lived for about twenty minutes after being struck, and during that time talked with those attending him and drank water on a couple of occasions.

The sad intelligence was broken to Mrs. Archer and children by Dr. E. H. Gray.

Mr. Archer was one of the oldest inhabitants of Blairmore and one of the best known miners in the district. For a number of years he served as secretary for the Blairmore local union, and would have held that office today had he not declined the nomination on Sunday last. He served as a private in the South African and Soudan campaigns, and but a few months ago returned from France, where he did service in the cause of the Allies in the present conflict, and received an honorable discharge. During his years of residence in the Crows' Nest Pass he had won respect from all classes of people, who will learn with deepest regret of his demise.

He is survived by a wife and three children, two daughters living at home and a son living near Calgary.

Funeral took place Thursday afternoon, following a short service conducted at the home by Rev. Dr. Gray, interment taking place at the Blairmore cemetery.

An inquest was held on Monday afternoon before Coroner Pinkney at the R.N.W.M.P. barracks. After viewing the remains and the scene of the fatality, the jury arrived at a verdict that death resulted from being hit by a trip of cars, and that blame could be attached to none.

Mrs. Archer desires through The Enterprise to express her heartfelt appreciation of the many kindnesses shown to her and family in their bereavement.

Notice is given in the last issue of the Alberta Gazette, that the Blairmore School District No. 628 has been declared to be a village district for the purposes of any assessment and taxation for school purposes under Section 95 of the School Assessment Ordinance.

A meeting of the Western Canada Coal Operators Association was held at the Commodore hotel on Tuesday of this week, attended by Lewis Stockitt, president; O. E. S. Whitlides, vice-president; W. F. McNeill, secretary-treasurer, and about twenty other members of the Association.

J. R. MacDonald Resigns

John R. MacDonald, former manager of the West Canadian Collieries' mines at Bellevue, and who for the past three or more years has served with the Franco Canadian Collieries' at Frank as technical manager, has tendered his resignation to that company, to take effect on February 28th.

Mr. MacDonald is one of the most experienced and best known mining men in the district, and operations under his direction have always been crowned with a goodly measure of success. We have not heard what his plans for the future are, but it is to be hoped that his connection with the mining industry of the Crows' Nest Pass will not be severed.

Many rumors are in circulation regarding changes likely to be effected in the official staff of the Franco-Canadian Collieries in the near future, one to the effect that John Brown, former manager of the Hillcrest mines, will succeed John R. MacDonald.

The Professor's Bulletin

No. 8. Scene: either the corridor or the grounds of any public school. Time: any period outside of class hours. Dramatic Personae: two school-girls facing each other, and giving every indication of being engaged in woe-strife. After some interplay of rapid fire, one pretty damsel, with eyes blazing and cheeks all aflame, lifts her dainty foot and stamps very emphatically, while she snaps out in most dramatic fashion, "NEVER DID!"

"Now, my dear young lady, wait, possibly, if I knew the circumstances, I should sympathize quite sincerely with your indignation. I do know that I would not express my protest in the same terms. Nor, in fact, would you have done so, even in the midst of passion, had you made a practice of expressing your thoughts accurately all the while your temper was under control. Now, in the present case, what you have stated is a DENIAL that on ANY OCCASION you have done the thing suggested. In other words, you DENY that you have EVER done so. Now, that may be a perfectly true statement of the case; and yet, I feel confident that what you really intended to indicate is that ON THE SPECIFIC OCCASION mentioned you DID NOT do the thing suggested. Don't you see the difference? Of course you do. Accordingly, the next time you have occasion to deny such an accusation, you will say, "I beg your pardon, I did not."

—"THE PROFESSOR."

An elderly lady walking through the town last summer heard the church choir singing, and stopped to listen. "What beautiful singing!" she said to a man who had also stopped in a listening attitude. But he was a naturalist interested in the "song" of a cricket. "Yes," he replied, "they do it by rubbing their hind legs together!"

Blairmore, Alta., Fri., Feb. 23, 1917

The Post Office Department is in receipt of a cablegram from the British authorities stating that no parcels containing foodstuffs or articles of clothing
should be forwarded to fugitives from Canada for prisoners of war in Germany.

The British authorities state that the
it is absolutely necessary that the above regulation should be complied with.
Therefore, on and from the 1st February, 1917, the Post Office Department will refuse to accept any such parcels for prisoners of war in Germany. The Department is advised by the English authorities that such parcels cannot be accepted for transmission to the prisoners, and could not get through.

The Canadian Red Cross Society through its London office undertakes that every Canadian prisoner shall receive adequate relief in food and clothing, tending to pass every week to each prisoner.
Therefore, existing organizations should continue their work of collecting funds to be sent to the Canadian Red Cross Society; and it is most desirable that they should not relax their efforts in this respect.

Persons desiring to have additional food or supplies sent to a Canadian prisoner should send money for that purpose
to the Prisoners of War Department, Canadian Red Cross Society.

A letter containing a remittance and requesting the Prisoners of War Department, Canadian Red Cross Society, to send the money to a prisoner of war in Germany, should be addressed to the Prisoners
of War Department, Canadian Red Cross Society, and should contain information
in the following form:

No. 123 1/2 Private A. B. Robinson, 15th Highlanders, Canada, is a prisoner of war, detained in Germany. Prisoner of War Department,
Canadian Red Cross Society, c/o Prisoners of War Department, London, England.

The remittance should be in the form of a Post Office Money Order drawn in favor of the Prisoners of War Department, Canadian Red Cross Society, for the prisoner of war in question.

Any person wishing to send a remittance direct to a prisoner of war may do so by means of a Post Office Money Order, which is issued free of commission. The instructions as to how to proceed can be obtained from postmaster or accountant
post offices.

Parcels for prisoners of war containing articles which are not prohibited, may be sent fully addressed to the place of detention in the form above care of Prisoners
of War Department, Canadian Red Cross Society, London, England, to be forwarded after they have been censored.

Detailed regulations respecting communication with prisoners of war are being issued to the postal service generally, and full information may be obtained by making application to any postmaster.

Water Powers of Mani- toba, Saskatchewan and Alberta

"Water Powers of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta," a well bound and attractively illustrated volume, issued by the Commission of Conservation, contains a valuable contribution to the authentic literature respecting the natural resources of Western Canada. This report,
by Leo G. Denis and A. B. Chaffin, comprises the results of special surveys
by the Commission of Conservation and a compilation of records from other reliable sources. As a compendium of all available data on the subject, it is particularly valuable for reference purposes.

While the Prairie Provinces, as a whole,
are not lavishly endowed with water-powers, the report demonstrates that the utility of their rivers for power development can be vastly enhanced through proper storage of flood waters. At present, in the absence of conservation dams,
and of adequate natural regulation, the great volume of flow is lost during the high water seasons. Methods of development to ensure the maximum utilization of now being carefully worked out on the Winnipeg, Bow and other large rivers. The more northerly regions possess numerous sites of great potential value for pulp, electro chemical and other special industries.

The report just issued is the second in the series on water-powers in Canada to be published by the Commission of Conservation. The third volume, "Water Powers of British Columbia," which is now in press, will complete the Commission's general inventory of this item of the Dominion's natural wealth.

The signing of the national service cards is now compulsory in Canada.

Cowley Happenings

Ralph Easterbrook is now at the front.

C. F. Sedgwick, of Lundbreck, is on a business visit to Calgary this week.

The Ladies Aid will meet at the manor on Thursday afternoon,
March 1st.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Easterbrook, of Sunnervue, are visiting with Roy's parents here.

Another baby has arrived to Mr.
and Mrs. C. N. Cyr, at the memorial hospital at Pincher Creek.

Mrs. T. E. Dodson was called to Saskatoon on Wednesday on account of the sudden illness of her daughter.

A pig and a cushion were raffled
off at the U.F.A. dance. Harvey Walsh and James Connor were the winners, respectively.

In spite of the cold weather, the U.F.A. dance was well attended on Monday. Dancing was kept up for into the small hours of morning.

Mrs. Bonnets and daughter, Miss Bonnets, have removed their place of residence from the J. Keen block to T. Bonnets' house in the cut kirk-le town.

Mrs. Thomas Webber and son
Harold have returned home. Mrs.
Webber will remain in California
for some weeks yet with her father,
who is in ill health.

H. C. Morrison, James Smyth,
James Bennett and H. D. Mac-Millan are in Calgary this week taking in the L.O.O.F. convention in conjunction with business, the latter being representative of the lodge.

The Donkublers are cutting their green-tinted up in such length
a dilling it in such a manner that long straw is around the outside of the bales. This is sold in B.C. at several dollars per ton more than ordinary green top.

The dance held in the Olin Creek Schoolhouse on February 9th proved to be a great success. Some seventy people were present. A pig, given by Mr. Hewitt, was raffled for the benefit of the Red Cross, and realized $25, and was won by Mr. Coates; while a cushion given by Mrs. Johnson for the same purpose realized $12.50, the winner being Mrs. MacIsaac.

Three cakes, made by Mrs. Milton
Robinson, Miss Hewitt and Mrs.
Dewar, were auctioned off and fetched in close on $5.00 for the good cause. In all, after expenses are paid, it is hoped there will be about $50 to hand over to the Red Cross Fund.

On St. Valentine's Day a number of ladies gathered at the village school in the afternoon. Both rooms went together when a volunteer programme was given by the pupils, which was very entertaining. The teachers deserve congratulations for getting a programme together, without warning,
that could hold and attract an audience for an hour and a half.
This being over, the seniors brought forth their boxes of home-made candy as a treat to the juniors,
which we feel sure the little folk felt was the best part of it all.
Next came the distributing of valentines, which seemed to shower
each child. Most of the valentines were made by the children. The daintiness of them shows the artistic development of these "young minds." The candy was also mostly home-made, proving the cunning in the art of cooking. This has been encouraged by Principal Hargrove, by his offering at an early date to contribute a prize of one dollar for the best candy made and seventy-five cents for the second best. We feel proud of the present progress of the school. Mr. Hargrove called on each of the ladies,
when most of them responded with short speeches. Mr. Hargrove wrote up in his firm but kind manner in which he pointed out several things which ought to be attended to at once, and mentioned

how the parent and teacher should co-operate for the betterment of the pupil. This most pleasant afternoon broke up by singing the national anthem.

It is pointed out by a London paper that when a soldier is killed, he drinks and smokes the equivalent of 100 cigarettes to a starting amount; the follower of fashion may waste still more on dress,
and yet a greater indictment can be levied against luxurious indolence. A series of comparative values has been worked out broadly thus:

10s. saved, say on feasting, equals
eighty cartridges.

Bottle of champagne equals 100 cartridges.

Box of cigars equals 400 cartridges.

Lady's new hat equals four steel helmets.

New dress equals four service rifles.

Diamond necklace equals one field gun.

Motor car equals airplane.

Piano equals 100 shells.

Lap dog equals twenty shells.

It is said that the return of a manuscript to its author is almost the life of the thing, and that only by the invariable use of the most gracious, courteous and apologetic language can he expect to avert the awful wrath of the contributor whose manuscript is declined, and save his own editorial head from swift decapitation. The following letter from a Celestial editor, accompanying the return of a manuscript, surely denotes tactfulness and a realization of the direful consequences if the recipient took offence thereat:

"Most honored brother of the sun and the moon: Your slave is prostrate at your feet! I kiss the ground before you,
and implore you to authorize the topknot and live. Your manuscript has been permitted itself to be looked upon by us, and we have read it with enchantment. I swear on the tomb of my ancestors that I have never read anything more exalted.
It is with fear and terror that I send it back. It allowed myself to print the treasure, the president would immediately
order me to use it forever as an example,
and forbid me to dare to print anything inferior. My literary experience enables me to declare that such literary pearls are only created once in ten thousand years, and this is why I take the liberty of returning it to you."

serious loss experienced by Mr.

Bellevue, who have during the past week had to rest the two youngest of their children, aged nine months and two years respectively.

Mr. Williams has purchased the interest and good will of A. L.

War Is Hell

(With Due Apologies)

A soldier of Legion lay quaking from his fears.
There was too much woman's tears.
But a comrade stood beside him as upon his cot he lay,
And bent with pitying glances to hear what he might say.

The pelted soldier faltered as he took that comrade's head,
And he said, "This bloomin' nursin' is more than I can stand.
For the love of Mike, old man, git me a whiskey and an egg.

Then I'll shoulder up my rifle and get back to General Hager.
Josh! this amuseurin' nursin' is more than I can stand.
One day it is a Downer, the next a Princess grand.

They practice on me fearful to those "Highfalutin' dames,
And it don't make me feel better cause they're handkerchiefs to their names.

They float about like Angels, and cast Angel smiles around.
But when it comes to scrubbin' those Angels ain't the found.

They ask me foolish questions as they stroke my bobbin' head,
They bow my hand an' fuses, till I wish that I was dead.

And when I was a-shakin' and quakin' with a chill,
They put ice packs on my stomach and gives me the wrong pills.

There was Tommy Atkins, who was wounded in the head,
And, blame me, but they bandaged up his one good leg instead.

Before I came a-fightin' they told me War was Hell!
But I didn't mind the trenches and the flin' shot and shell.

It's this philanthropic nursin' that is more than I can bear;
I'd be happy in the trenches or in—well—anywhere."

Up-to-Date, As Usual

Bernard Eckardt today informed us that a "Bulletin" from Coleman announces that "war has been declared in Europe."

The officials of the West Canadian Culleries very thoughtfully made a subscription towards Mrs. Archer and family this week, which we understand amounted to over two hundred dollars.

TEN YEARS AGO

(From The Blairmore Times, 1906)

August 18—Sailor Jack, a loach character, of Coleman, was on before Justice Bench and Diemy on Tuesday, charged with tampering with goods behind the Grand Union hotel bar, and was sent up for four months.

Robert Kerr, who had lately taken up a homestead near Lundbreck, while leading a horse to water on Wednesday evening, was dragged to death by the animal.

BORN—At Rock Creek, on Wednesday, August 16th, to the wife of Joe Devine, a son.

The trustees of the school here have just purchased a complete set of the latest maps for the school.

The race run last week between Miller's bay horse and Lyon's black mare, over which there was some dispute, has been decided in favor of the bay horse and the money paid over.

Contractors Frayer & Sinclair have started work on the new hospital building at Lillie.

A glove contest is to be pulled off in Frank on Tuesday evening, between James Burrows, of Hillcrest, and Walter Oldham, of Fernie.

It is reported that a conference is to be held shortly, at the invitation of the government, of the rival claimants of the Blairmore townsite. This dispute over the townsite has been a right between parties, none of whom had or have any legal right, except trying to grab a fat plum.

In the meantime, the people here have been made to suffer by reason of not being able to acquire title to their building lots, and as a consequence, we have a shack town where fine buildings should stand. Blairmore has been held back by reason of this dispute, which has been going on for the past five years, and if the courts of Canada and the Department of Interior are going to use up another five years in settling this dispute, Blairmore may expect to remain a shack town until they get through.

August 25—Dr. O'Hagan has moved from here to his new home at Lillie.

September 1—It is estimated that the census returns are safe to place Alberta's population at 180,000. This means an increase in the last five years of about 47 per cent.

A boxing contest slated at Frank on Saturday last between Jim Burrows, of Hillcrest, and George Thomas, of Fernie, ended in favor of Burrows in the eighth round.

September 15—J. Paden and family moved to Bellevue last week.

The attendance at the Coleman school has increased to such an extent that it is found necessary to engage three teachers.

The new store being erected at Bellevue for the firm of Burnett & Laing will soon be completed.

Jim Burrows, of Hillcrest, has been matched to fight with Jerry McCarty in Spokane during the fruit fair. Jim has the well wishes of his many friends here in this contest, as he has proved himself not only a good and fair fighter, but a gentleman whether in or out of the ring.

The new G.P.R. station at Coleman is now well under way, and will soon be ready to accommodate the traveling public.

The Frank mine has been closed down for a couple of weeks to allow of a change in the haulage system to the new tippie and the installing and starting up of the new machinery there. This new tippie has a capacity for handling fully 2,500 tons per day, and was built by Messrs. Frayer & Sinclair, of Blairmore.

Remember the mock parliament session to be held in the Oddfellows' hall on Monday night next, under the auspices of the Blairmore Social Club.

Frank Happenings

A meeting of the Frank school board was held on Wednesday evening, the full board being present.

We understand that our local police constable is shortly to be removed, and we take occasion to advise those who are irresponsible to be on their good behaviour thereafter.

Steve Backus paid a visit to Lundbreck on Wednesday.

A meeting of the Red Cross was held on Thursday.

Rev. W. T. Young paid a visit to Livingstone and Cowley last week.

Antoni Plakek and Zwicki Honda were united in matrimony yesterday by Rev. W. T. Young.

A very pretty wedding took place at Frank this week in which a well-known young couple were made one. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. T. Young, who looked charming. The bride was dressed in white, as was also the three bridesmaids, all of whom looked ——— at the preacher. After the tangle, a sumptuous luncheon was partaken of after which dancing was indulged in until—until—well, it's still going! With the many friends of this brave young couple we join in expressions of sympathy.

The time for commencing construction is fixed at two to five years.

A. McLeod went to Calgary on Tuesday night with his son John, who is to consult a nose specialist.

The initiatory degree will be conferred at next Tuesday night's meeting of Blairmore IOOF lodge.

Mr. Ostrander, photographer, is moving from Coleman to Blairmore, where he will have headquarters in future.

At a meeting of the local school board on Tuesday afternoon, A. McLeod was appointed assessor for District 628.

Mark Sartoris has taken over the pool hall in the Peuchen block, and the Blairmore hotel poolroom has also changed hands, this week.

Wealth of Western Provinces

Grain, Live Stock and Dairy Products Constitute Amazing Wealth

The Winnipeg Free Press, in an exhaustive tabulation of market returns for Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta for 1916, says that the value of live stock and dairy products and the first four months of the grain crop of these provinces totalled $28,010,681. For 1915 it gives a comparative figure of $25,162,954, and for 1914 of $14,669,535.

It is stated that 97,000,000 bushels of wheat have passed Winnipeg of the 1916 crop. Oats, barley and flax inspected there had a value of over $10,000,000 higher than for the same months of the previous year.

The year's grain total is made up as follows, according to the Free Press: Wheat, $161,389,935; oats, $22,135,625; barley, $6,891,187; flax, $6,851,363; dairy products, $127,226,014; Winnipeg stockyards, $13,346,393; Calgary yards, $10,116,770; Edmonton yards (three months), $61,823,141; potatoes and roots, $17,938,000.

How Money Makes Money

It is a striking commentary on the way in which corporate wealth increases of itself that the Standard Oil holdings alone of the late Chas. W. Harkness, who died on May 1 last, increased in value $7,618,991 between that day and December 7, when the appraisal of his fortune was disclosed. Between the two dates and the rounding up of his possessions this one block of his $60,000,000 of property had grown by that enormous sum, and while the man himself lay in his grave—Boston Transcript.

Unexplored Ontario

Within the borders of Ontario are three tracts of 6,000 to 8,000 square miles each that no white man has ever explored. It is estimated that east of the reinder lake and Kasar river is a region of 73,000 square miles area, larger than New York, New Jersey, Connecticut and Massachusetts combined, which is yet to be explored. Altogether there is an aggregate of 90,000 square miles of country which should be represented on the map by whiteness, and this calculation does not include unexplored areas of less than 4,000 square miles—Detroit News.

Keeping Account

A Little Figuring Will Usually Pay Big Dividends

It has been said that if lead pencils were uncommon things there would be golden opportunities for slick-tongued salesmen to sell them at a substantial profit on the strength of the amount of money which could be saved by their use. This was never more true than it is today when everything is so high in price. A lead pencil judiciously used will show which crops last year returned the most for the labor put upon them. Such information would be valuable in planning this year's work. Lead pencils have been known to save years of time which was being spent in milking unprofitable cows. A little figuring might show where the purchase of a new machine would more than save its cost in time saved during the rush of a busy season. Before the lead pencil idea is capitalized why not start of your own accord to ascertain just how things are going and where savings of time and money could be made?—The Practical Farmer.

Japanese Wives and Jealousy
When a married man in Japan is attracted by another woman, his wife makes a straw effigy of her rival and in the dead of night goes out in stealth and nails the figure to the trunk of a tree in a shrine-ground cemetery, or any other dreary place. For several days she goes there every night, passing away the hours in the figure each time, meanwhile praying for the other woman's death. It is believed that, with the driving of the nails, that hatred rival will fall ill, becoming gradually worse, and worse until she passes away. This custom of superstition has been handed down from ancient times, but has now almost died out except in the country villages—Wide World Magazine.

Interesting Conclusions Drawn From Tracing French Ancestry

Thoughtful delvers into Canadian history have drawn attention to the fact that the French of Lower Canada are more akin to ourselves than we have been accustomed to suppose. Their ancestors came from Brittany and Normandy. The Bretons are brothers to the Celtic Irish, the Welsh and the Highland Scottish. The Normans were of Scandinavian blood, and essentially identical with the Northerners who scourged England under the name of Danes, occupied that part of France from which the William the Conqueror and his retinue, and even adventured into the Mediterranean as far as Sicily. It would be difficult, therefore, to say whether the early explorers and settlers along the St. Lawrence in the days of the Bourbons were more typical Frenchmen—mercantile and physically prolific—Hamilton Spectator.

Holloway's Corn Cure takes the corn out by the roots. Try it and prove it.

Mightiest of the Grand Fleet
A Canadian lieutenant on a British ship of the Grand Fleet, in a recent letter to friends in Toronto, says: "Since the war began the navy has grown like a green bay tree. It has been pruned of old ships and some new ones, but new branches have sprung out, as by magic. Barring wrecks, in battle strength, nothing was known of the mightiest until with a roar that woke the echoes of the hills the thunder claps rattled down within halting distance of us."

"As one gazes at these great leviathans, one is struck by the speed and power is the marvel of the age, one realizes the full meaning of what Britain's war-time manufacturing power means to her today."

No Change
At the age of sixteen Alice Jones wrought poetic changes in her name. She signed herself E. Alyse Jones. Thus designated she entered a new school. The head mistress asked her name. "Alyse Jones," she replied.

"Thank you," said the teacher. "And how are you spelling Jones now?"—Argonaut.

Appears to Be No Limit to the Progress of Modern Surgery

"I have seen two soldiers, with shrapnel bullets in their brains, sitting up in bed, eating and laughing with their friends. Is there no limit to the marvels of modern surgery?" writes an English writer of the London hospitals. Judging from the marvellous achievements of our war surgeons, we do not think there is. Quite recently a Canadian soldier, whose lower jaw had been partly carried away by a fragment of shell, causing terrible disfigurement, was provided with a new jaw, built with a piece of the wounded man's ribs.

In another case a lieutenant in a Highland regiment, whose lower jaw had been almost completely blown away, was doctored in a marvellous manner. The surgeon put a new floor to the man's mouth, actually induced two pieces of bone to grow on the lower jaw, fixed complete artificial teeth and healed the remains of the lips, with the result that now the man is as normal as ever, and the only trace of his mishap is a slight scar by the mouth. In another case the successful re-uniting of the spinal cord was the first time in the history of surgery. A soldier whose spinal cord had been completely severed by a shell wound of the back, was so treated that in a short time he was able to move his lower limbs and gradually recovered his normal sensory powers. Another wonderful operation was the extracting of a fragment of hand grenade from the head of a British sergeant, the cure being established beyond all doubt.

It is a remedy for asthma that is too evident to be questioned—it is its own best argument—its own proof. If you suffer from asthma get this time-tested remedy and find help like thousands of others.

WINTER HARD ON BABY

The winter season is a hard one on the baby. His more or less confined to stuffy, badly ventilated rooms. It is so on stormy that the mother does not get him out in the fresh air as often as she should. He catches colds which rack his little system; his clothes and towels get out of order and he becomes peevish and cross. To guard against this the mother should keep a box of Baby Own Tablets in the house. They regulate the stomach and bowels and break the colds. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

A Sure Way
A Minnesota man relates that one afternoon a train on a western railway was stopped at a small station, when one of the passengers, in looking over the place, found his car fixed upon an interesting sign. Haring to the side of the conductor, he eagerly inquired: "I will have time to get a soda before the train starts?"

"Oh, yes," answered the conductor. "But suppose," suggested the thirsty passenger, "that the train should stop on without me?"

"We can easily fix that," promptly replied the conductor. "I will go along with have one with you,"—Argonaut.

Women's Craze for High Boots and Delicate Ties in Hosiery Discussed in London

Extravagant expenditure on silk stockings and showy boots is going on without stint. Economy in dress is practiced by many women, but not by the butterflies of fashion.

Among the section of the population which is temporarily enriched through the war there is a tendency to flaunt all the extravaganzas of fashion, and the result is that women will scarcely look at plain cotton and cashmere stockings nowadays. Stockings of artificial silk and fine gauze silk with merino tops, 45 or 55 a pair, and sometimes more, are all the rage. The fact that they will not stand hard wear makes no difference to the demand.

As to the extravagant boots, this is what the head of a big firm says, as reported in the Shoe and Leather Record: "There seems no limit to the prices which many wearers will pay. I am stocking women's hosiery and cloth tops, for which I pay as much as 35 shillings. What do I get for them? Practically any price I like to ask."

But the Chicken Wouldn't
A country hotel proprietor, glancing out of a rear window, saw his new water churning a chicken about the yard.

"What have you in that bowl?" demanded the hotel man, referring to a dinner he was buying.

"Mushrooms," responded the new waiter. "There's a gentleman that wants chicken smothered with mushrooms, and I'm trying to smother him."

Heroic Flying Men

Courageous and Daring Tactics of the British Army

French aviators have a profound respect for the British Royal Flying Corps, and the main, the chief Parisian newspaper, prints a warm appreciation of their services. We are told that during a reconnaissance in Egypt, an aeroplane was attacked by two enemy machines. A bullet pierced the English pilot's jaw, another pierced his shoulder, a third found a resting place in his left leg, and finally his left hand was also wounded. He fainted, regaining consciousness when only 150 metres above the earth. He was over his own lines. He brought his machine safely to land, and then found that his observer was wounded in the chest and shoulder. With difficulty he made his report, faint and exhausted.

During a bombing mission Lieutenant Albert Ball noticed twenty enemy aeroplanes, divided into three groups. He advanced towards the first group, which contained seven machines and fired on them at a distance of ten yards. The first German wavered, wheeled and fell. He then threw himself upon the others, firing two volleys at them. The first Boche took fire and fell. The others attempted to escape, but our pilot immediately started in pursuit and followed them until he had discharged his last cartridge. One of the enemy machines falling on a house in a village. Ball then returned for more ammunition, changed his machine, and attacked three more aeroplanes, which he put out of action; then, with a broken machine, he attempted to return to his base with his machine disabled.

A Difference
There is a curious difference between the order issued by the German emperor to his troops and the order issued by General Nivelle to the French troops. Both are calls to further fighting; but the emperor's order is gloomy in tone and speaks of new sacrifices, while the French general speaks of the chance at the beginning of the year and says his men will make 1917 a year of victory. It is a difference of tone that makes this difference of tone—Buffalo Express.

Coming and Going
A struggling maker of humorous quips tried to break into a leading magazine. He sent the editor one of his favorite mottoes.

He sent another. The comment was: "Too good to be original."

He sent a third. The comment was: "Too good to be original."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

We know other Machines! Autos Engines, etc

Why not our own Body Machine?

We study and admire the machinery invented by man, and too often overlook and neglect that most marvellous machine—the human body.

To understand and take care of the heart, lungs and liver; the arteries and veins, the skin, the teeth, the eyes and all the intricate machinery of the body, is no small task.

But, unlike any other machine, the body replaces its own wear and waste, and, consequently, the most attention required is that which has to do with the organs of digestion and excretion.

So long as proper food is supplied for nourishment and the liver, kidneys and bowels are regular in their work of eliminating poisonous waste matter from the system, the great majority of human ills are avoided.

In this connection Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are appreciated on account of their purity and efficiency in arousing the action of the filtering and excretory organs, and thereby removing such disorders as liver complaint, biliousness, constipation, indigestion, kidney disease and backache. With these organs in healthful action there is no such thing as Bright's disease, hardening of the arteries and rheumatism.

A woman in Chicago is circulating a petition for the passage of a law compelling men who smoke cigarettes to walk in the middle of the streets, and some of the men are circulating a petition in favor of the passage of a law compelling girls whose dresses are more than six inches from the ground to walk in the middle of the street also.

The smoking habit among ladies has grown to such an extent in England that there is some talk of special carriages being set aside by the London railway companies for the fair devotees of the nicotine habit. At present they have to travel in men's smokers, which is not much to their liking. A cigarette case is now in England as important an item of a lady's bag as her powder-puff and mirror.

Here is a letter we received a few days ago, which shows how the poor newspaper man shares in this country's war-made prosperity: "Please send a few copies of the paper containing the obituary of my aunt. Also, publish the enclosed clipping of the marriage of my niece who lives in Lewiston. And I wish you would mention in your local column if it doesn't cost anything, that I have two bull calves for sale. As my subscription is out please stop the paper, as times are too hard to waste money on newspapers."

Gloves for the feet—with separate compartments for every one of the five toes—is what is advocated by Dr. D. T. Quigley, of Omaha. The skin of the feet is constantly the prey of bacteria, according to the doctor. "The greatest enemy of bacteria is sunlight," he says, "whereas the foot in a modern shoe is constantly in total darkness." Dr. Quigley started society last summer by organizing a phalanx of bare-footed golf players. He got his friends out to the various fields and country clubs and had them chasing golf balls barefooted, digging their toes into the grass and mud as they ran. They felt better they said.

Millions of dollars worth of automobiles are tied up in Detroit by railroad congestion. It is claimed that the situation may become much more serious if transportation conditions are not improved before the spring delivery season opens. The war spirit is again manifested in the decision of the owners of the sealing fleet that will set out from Newfoundland in the middle of March to ship no slackers. No unmarried man between the age of 20 and 30, who has not offered his services to the country, unless he can establish that he remains at home to permit other members of his family to be at the front, will be given a coveted berth on the hunting trip that appeals so strongly to the adventurous Newfoundlanders. The decision is popular. The sealing fleet will consist of ten wooden ships of the old type, and will carry about 1800 men, as compared with three to four thousand in recent years.

In due time the following was received: "Church extension, none; new members, none; new professions of faith, none; collections, none; salary paid the preacher, none. Pray for us that we may hold our own during the coming year."

Some ancient mariners were sitting on the rail relating their experiences of fog. "Ah!" said one old salt, "I've seen some pretty thick fogs in my time. Why, off the coast of Newfoundland the fog was sometimes so thick that we used to sit on the deck-rail and lean against it! We were sitting one night as usual, with our backs to the fog, when suddenly, it lifted, and we all went flop into the sea. A bit thick, wasn't it?"

The Zeppelin campaign against London has been found to be unprofitable. Cessation of the German air attacks on the British metropolis after the latest appearance of the big dirigibles over the city last fall has been due not to fortuitous circumstances, but to deliberate determination of the German leaders to abandon these attacks, as has long been done in the case of Paris.

Spurious fifty dollar bills on the Bank of Nova Scotia are in circulation in Alberta. A local preacher made the remark during his sermon that many people thought of heaven and religion only when they became sick. We have known some people to be so sick on the sea that they would actually throw up heaven if they had it.

Preacher—Let everyone in the congregation who desires to go to the Better Land stand up.

Almost everybody rose.

Preacher—Now, let everybody who wants to go to the other place stand up.

No one rose. After a minute a man in the back seat slowly got up and said: "I don't particularly want to go to the other place, but I am willing to stand up rather than let the minister go there alone."

A few days ago a party of young people were discussing the quality of an article purchased at the Methodist Ladies Aid sale of work at Frank, and one of the young ladies proclaimed herself a pretty good judge. After walking across the room to speak to a friend, she returned, and in the act of sitting down came near sitting on a young gentleman's knee. Not much disturbed, the latter remarked: "It's the first time in my life I have witnessed a lady judge sitting on a case!"

Nanton's License By-Law

The Council by-law of Nanton, as amended, includes the following:

Auctioneers, $10 per year. Hawkers and peddlers, $100 per year, or $10 for first day and $6 for each subsequent day.

Transient traders $200 per year, with the fee to be refunded if the trader remains in business in town over twelve months.

Book canvassers, $5 per day.

Milk vendors, 50 cents per cow, and inspection fee.

Drays, $15 per year for first day and $10 for each additional day belonging to same owner.

Pool and billiard tables, etc., $10 per year for each table.

Bowling alleys, $15 per year.

Shooting galleries and similar places of amusement $10 per year.

Merry-go-rounds, $20 per day.

Circuses, $50 per day.

Exhibitions of curiosities, $10 per day.

Dramatic entertainments or concerts outside of licensed halls, $5 per day.

Licensed show houses, $40 per year.

Six machines, $100 per year.

Transfer of license, $2.

We are in perfect sympathy with the third clause, which requires a license fee of $200 per year, same to be refunded should the trader remain over twelve months. Such a measure is a protection to the local merchant or citizen who has so much money invested in the town that they are compelled to remain and need protection. We believe that such a guarantee should be demanded from anyone wishing to engage in any line of business in a new town.

Albert F. Short, of Coleman, and Michael Francis Torpy, of Beaver Mines, have been appointed commissioners to administer oaths.

We notice in the last issue of the Albion Gazette a long list of names of individuals who are given commission to administer oaths. We know of some parties who never wait for a license to make use of their talents in this respect.

We are pleased to note the improvement made in the general service of the Cosmopolitan and Alberta hotels since the new proprietors assumed charge. For many months complaints were general, particularly with commercial travellers, regarding the accommodations offered by the Pass hotelmen, and the result was that many of the latter who would have liked to spend the week end in The Pass, were obliged to go back to the city to spend the Sunday. Now things have changed considerably, and we have it from a number of commercial travellers and others that the service now being handed out by Messrs. McCollum and Hope will compare with anything in the province. And there is no reason why such should not be the case. Blainmore as a centre offers one of the best opportunities at Frank, and if honest treatment is accorded, a large trade is secured. The fact that for several days the register leaves at one of our hotels have been headed with the words "No more rooms" and that manager McAlmon of the Cosmopolitan is figuring on additional rooms speaks well for the possible success of their efforts.
